

I use/perform/prepare <element> everytime there is an opportunity to use/perform/prepare it.
I am very satisfied with <element>.
How do you feel if <element> is available/is performed well.
How do you feel if <element> is not available/isn't performed well.

Our employees use/perform/prepare <element> very efficiently.
Our <element> is very advance compared to alternative elements I know.
<Element> fits well with all aspects of our employees work.

<Element> significantly reduces the costs of our software development.
<Element> significantly increases the quality of our software products.
<Element> significantly increases the speed of our software development.

